Start running (beyond)
Your imagination... Alive
If you desire something from the bottom of your heart

Risk your life and dive in
The resolve to discard what's truly important
Is the boat that will take you to new sights
(Hey man!) Take the strings of your heart
(Hey man!) And stretch them (Say dream!) To the limit
At the other end you're sure to find the Gate to paradise

You'll be the first witness
Our pounding pulses are Heavenly
Admit that you can't deny it
We start... What do your fingertips
Seek now?
