(If you get lost, there's a song here)

We came to understand a brilliant something resembling all the light in the galaxy Even on days I'm scared, the faint warmth I want to deliver won't disappear

Even if you want to close your eyes to reality's reflection

Come on, let's create an illusion
The sound of the future
On the curtain of three thousand worlds
We quietly adorn
Each and every one of us has meaning It's the message of the Fantasia You're the one who gave me the courage to weave

So I always want you by my side
