

RESTART POiNTER

If I can smile with you,
we can change any day

Let's dream a new dream again,
Step on dream... Together

There's something we can't see yet, the desire to want to know

Shakes my heart from that day, like a yell
I want to scream, but I'm a bit scared, yet we should be able to take the step, right?

Jump on and Glide!
The certain Melody is still playing

The person you should face is (Nowhere) Unreflected in your eyes (Come on) Once you decide, stick with it, and we'll risk everything... Going on!
Fly high! That's why I believe that you should race through however you want

No matter how many times, RESTART POiNT, carve your RESOLUTiON into your heart

If I can smile with you,
we can overcome any day

Let's dream a new dream again,
Step on dream... Together
