I found you!
You had your eye on me, too
Is this where it all begins?
It's actually already begun (Now, let's go)

Feelings (We have so many of them)
Once they connect (It cheers us up!)
Let our hearts become stronger and let's work even harder

So at any time, our dream is our sun After we cry, let's put a smile on our faces

And talk about the future
At any time, our dream is our sun
Even if the wind or rain hit hard Remember, there's a light that shines down on us

I'm going to try to give it my all again today
