

Tachiagare

Believing I could not dream
I protected my small, quiet self Badly hurt, to the harsh sea Afraid, I quickly turned my back
But I am who I am
No tricks will work against me
I decided I could only move forward without giving up

WAKE UP bathed in bright sunlight
The hope in my heart
overlaps with you

STAND UP there is no night
that does not end

Believe in tomorrow's smile
Shine MY ONLY ONE
I cried forever, I shouted forever
I searched for my lost love forever
The moment I stood on the edge of despair

I heard the sound of a kind wind
Then I found it
This is my stage
I fly into that sky once again
WAKE UP it opened my eyes Because you don't want to cry anymore

STAND UP the future lies ahead
That's why we now depart
Watch me MY ONLY ONE
More, more I want to tell you how I feel

There is something I can't give up no matter how much I'm hurt

Listen, listen
I'll sing my heart out

I don't care if they laugh at me
I won't lose Stand up!
WAKE UP bathed in bright sunlight
The hope in my heart
overlaps with you

STAND UP there is no night
that does not end

WAKE UP may my wish come true I'm heading towards my dream now, hands outstretched

STAND UP let's run without doubts
To live in this world
With you MY ONLY ONE
